What People Are Saying...

MALENA CRAWFORD

REDEFINE YOUR STORY. LIVE YOUR JOY. CREATE FREEDOM

“Malena spoke to our group of over 300 women at the Women on the Grow Conference held in George, South Africa. In one room, Malena brought her message to a racially and tribally diverse post-Apartheid group of South African women together for a history-making time of unity and healing. The attendees hung onto every word of her lively and fun presentation on how to make their dreams reality. The women of George remain inspired to stay 'honey sweet'!!!” ~ Melannie Cunningham, Sister Cities International

“Malena Crawford was exceptional and captivating as the keynote speaker for our Be Inspired Health & Wellness Women Empowerment Networking Event in Annapolis, MD. The guests are still raving about her, and walking in their freedom and H.O.N.E.Y.!! Malena speaks truth your soul that enhances freedom to move into your desires of your heart.” ~ Michelle Boulden-Hammond

“Only you define you. You must make your life your own, and by all means, make it juicy.”

Malena Crawford
Author, Speaker, Mentor

“Malena led our book club discussion on her book, 'A Fistful of Honey,' but it was so much more than a book that she offered! The ladies of Sunday Brunch Book Club were floored with her first 'honey talk,' and we have invited her back twice since! She is down to earth and a healing presence!” ~ Vanessa Poe, Sunday Brunch Book Club, Arlington, VA

“Malena was a speaker at my G.L.E.A.M. (Grow. Learn. Elevate. Admire. Mentor.) Women’s Empowerment Conference. 200 women registered and Malena was a beautiful part of that mission. Malena came to empower and encourage women with her book, 'A Fistful of Honey'. One of the things I loved about Malena was her ability to connect with people on a human level. There is no question that her mission is to inspire women through her work and through her actions.” ~ Kendell Lenice, G.L.E.A.M. Founder/Organizer

Editorial Reviews

"A rich, poignant, page-turning, healing balm of a book. This woman's story will change your life. As a new author, Crawford offers spiritual, emotional and racial healing in beautifully intimate prose. A must read."

Iyanla Vanzant, New York Times Bestselling Author, Host: Iyanla Fix My Life, OWN

"WOW, WOW, WOW is all I can say! This novel is EPIC! BRAVO! I REALLY enjoyed this book! Author, Malena Crawford, craftily weaves in pieces of the mystical and esoteric in the form of ancient goddess wisdom, the Black Madonna, and the often mysterious Mary Magdalene, and tees it all up in a modern context that is both provoking and titillating. You'll stay up late into the night (as I did) with this one, as it pulls you in, deeper and deeper. I vote for a sequel!!!"

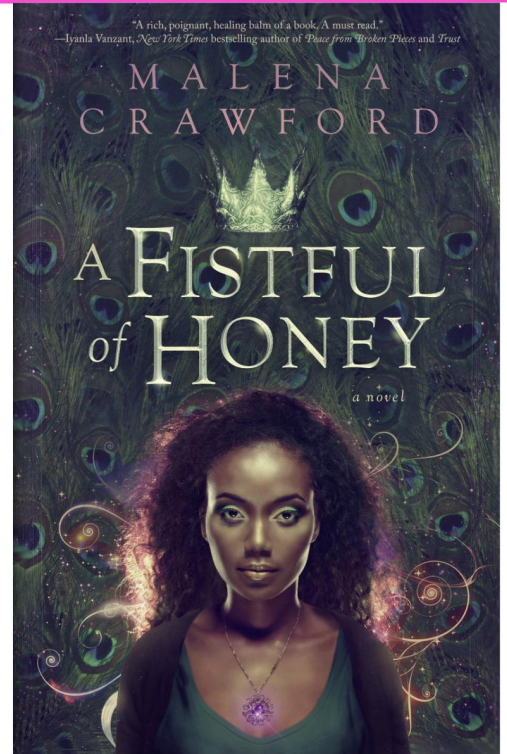

Debrena Jackson Gandy, National Best-Selling Author, Sacred Pampering Principles: An African-American Woman's Guide to Self-care and Inner Renewal & All the Joy You Can Stand

"Get ready for a feel-like-you're-there ride of a lifetime. An Octavia Butler-esque HIT! I really enjoyed this book! Similar to the style of the late Octavia Butler, Crawford does a great job of telling this riveting tale of a woman who found herself traveling back through time to find her truth in the present."

Geri Murphy, Sister's 'N Sync Book Club

A Thrilling, Humbling Experience - By Amazon Customer on March 1, 2017

Reading "A Fistful of Honey" was an exhilarating experience full of intrigue and mystique. The story took me on journeys in and out of this world that left me breathless, feeling heart and physical pain as if I was right there. Malena Crawford speaks for our ancestors who suffered and lifts the veil so that they can witness a new way. The book captures the soul and emotions of many sisters and bridges an exciting connection of the past and events of the day. A "Fistful of Honey" is a healing creation and begs the soon coming of a sequel.
